El Bethel: Where Faith Meets the Journey

Volume 1 / Issue 10 - August 2025

நான் உன்னைவிட்டு விலகுவதுமில்லை, உன்னைக்
கைவிடுவதுமில்லை..

“ I will never leave you nor forsake you.”

Joshua யோசுவா- 1:5

2 Chronicles 30:9 – “Return and Be Restored: The God of Compassion”

“If you return to the Lord, then your fellow Israelites and your children will be shown compassion by their captors and will return to this land, for the Lord your God is gracious and compassionate. He will not turn his face from you if you return to him.” 2 Chronicles 30:9

Sometimes we find ourselves in places we never intended to be like spiritually dry, emotionally distant, or burdened by some failure. In 2 Chronicles 30, King Hezekiah sends out a bold invitation to Israelites not just to attend a festival, but to return to the Lord when they were in tough time. This was a call to renewal, revival, and restoration. This verse reveals that:

1. God’s Mercy Reaches Into Exile

Hezekiah’s message was sent to a people who had rebelled, wandered, and suffered the consequences. And yet, God had not forgotten them. His mercy extended even into their captivity. “Your children will be shown compassion by their captors...” Even in our lowest places like places of failure, regret, or distance, God is still working. His grace reaches deeper than exile.

2. Repentance opens the door to restoration

“If you return to the Lord...” This verse gives a clear condition: return. Not perform, not prove just return. Restoration begins with a turning of the heart. The invitation is open, but the choice is ours. And the moment we turn, we find a God who was never far.

3. God Is Gracious and Compassionate

“...for the Lord your God is gracious and compassionate...” This isn’t just what God does, it’s who He is. He doesn’t hold grudges or wait to shame us. He welcomes, forgives, and restores. The same God who called Israel back is calling us today. His love hasn’t changed.

4. God Will Not leave You nor forsake you

Hezekiah ends the verse with a promise: “He will not turn his face from you if you return to him.”

And this echoes God's words to Joshua: “I will never leave you nor forsake you.”

You are never beyond His reach. Whether you've walked away or just grown weary, His face is not turned in anger, it's turned toward you, with compassion.
