El Bethel: Where Faith Meets the Journey

Volume 1 / Issue 12 - October 2025

கர்த்தர் உங்கள் முன்னே போவார்; இஸ்ரவேலின் தேவன் உங்கள் பிறகே உங்களைக் காக்கிறவராயிருப்பார். "For The Lord Will Go Before You, The God of Israel Will Be Your Rear Guard."

ஏசாயா - Isaiah 52:12

John 10:27 - My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.

In a world full of noise with social media, opinions, pressure and fear, it's easy to feel overwhelmed and lost. But in John 10:27, Jesus reminds us that His followers are not left to wander aimlessly. He says, "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

First, Jesus says, "My sheep listen to my voice."

Not just hear but listen. To listen means to focus, to tune out distractions. Like a child recognizing their mother's voice in a crowd, we are called to develop a relationship so close with Jesus that we recognize His voice amid the chaos.

Second, He says, "I know them."

That's personal. Jesus doesn't see us as just part of a crowd. He knows our name, our struggles, our fears, our story. We are not forgotten. We are known and loved by the Shepherd Himself.

Finally, "They follow me."

True discipleship isn't just about belief but it's about action. We follow where He leads, even when the path is uncertain, because we trust the One guiding us. Even if it is wilderness or green pastures, He leads our path.

Whose voice are we listening to today? Is it fear, doubt, or comparison or are we tuning in to the voice of the Good Shepherd, who knows us, loves us, and leads us?

The Shepherd's voice isn't always loud, but it is always near.

It reminds us we are known.

It calls us to follow.

It assures us we are never alone.
