God prepares the way!

I often think about how reassuring it is to know that God goes before us. Especially in the end of the year, even when we feel our prayers are still not answered or when life feels unpredictable or the path ahead seems unclear, this promise reminds us that we are never walking into the unknown alone. The Lord Himself steps into every place before we arrive, preparing the way with wisdom only He can give.

As we reflect on the verse Isaiah 45:2, let's think about the Christmas story. Mary and Joseph were ordinary people caught in extraordinary circumstances. A census uprooted them from their home. A long, uncomfortable journey brought them to Bethlehem at the most inconvenient time. And when they arrived, there was no room anywhere and no comfortable place to rest, no assurance of what to do next.

Yet, even in what felt like a series of obstacles, God was going before them.

The stable was not an accident. The timing was not random. The star that would guide the wise men was already placed in the sky. The shepherds were already being prepared to hear the angelic announcement. Heaven was moving long before Mary and Joseph understood what God was orchestrating.

Their path may have looked crooked, but God was already straightening it. In that humble place, at the perfect moment, Jesus the Messiah, Savior, and our King was born.

Truly, Isaiah 45:2 reminds us that God is the One who makes the crooked places straight. The Christmas story teaches us that when God goes before us, nothing is wasted like no detour, no disappointment, no closed door. Even when the path feels winding, He is arranging every step for His purpose and our good.

The soul that trusts the God who goes before will see His promises unfold.
For in His perfect time, He always fulfills His word.
