Acknowledging God in All Your Ways!

Proverbs 3:6 – “In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.”

As we are in this Lent season, we are reminded of the great love God has for us. Christ came to do the Father’s will perfectly, showing us the way of surrender, obedience, and love. Just as He fulfilled God’s plan, we too are chosen, called, loved, and redeemed to live according to His will.

Every day we make plans and follow our desires, but true guidance comes when we invite God into every part of our lives. Acknowledge Him in all your ways, not just when it’s convenient, and not after we try to rely on our own strength. We see a lesson in the Israelites who brought the Ark of the Covenant into battle against the Philistines (1 Samuel 4). They thought God’s presence alone would guarantee victory, but they ignored His guidance. This reminds us that God is not a “good luck charm” for our plans. True acknowledgment means trusting Him, listening to His guidance, and aligning our desires with His will.

During this Lent, pray more. Prayer brings victory. As Jesus prayed in Gethsemane, He surrendered His will to the Father, saying, “Not my will, but Yours be done” (Luke 22:42). In the same way, our prayers invite God’s guidance, strengthen our faith, and align our hearts with His perfect plan.

When we acknowledge God in all our ways, He makes our paths straight, removing obstacles, opening doors, and guiding us toward peace, joy, and lasting blessings. May this Lent be a season of true surrender, reflection, prayer, and walking confidently in God’s perfect plan.

Be Blessed!
